Your support and help enabled us to have our most successful year yet at the Delaware State Legislature, with the unanimous vote in the House and Senate for our Share the Care Act, which will allow home health aides to give medications under the direction of the patient or their advocate.

Our state AARP leaders are working on plans for the upcoming year that we will be offered a chance to participate in and help carry to victory as many of you were instrumental in helping accomplish last year. Our Goals will broaden and increase this year.

We will start our first committee meeting of the year 9/3/2019 and will consider which projects to join and move forward. All are welcome – see below.

Scholarship - Ida Crist & Shirley Price

It has been more than three months since the Artisans Fair on May 25, but we still relish the memories of a very successful day. Thank you for the dedication and hard work of the Artisans Fair Committee and all the member volunteers who contributed their time and talents; we also appreciate all those who donated baked goods or monetary donations. It was through all your efforts that the 12th annual Artisans Fair was the most financially successful fair we have had.

Forty-nine artisans exhibited inside the Lord Baltimore Elementary School facility and an additional 12 artisans sold their goods outside alongside eight Farmers Market participants. Two quilts, generously donated by the Delmarvalous Quilters, raised $200 for the scholarship fund. Our baked sale and monetary donations from those who gave instead of baking raised approximately $1,800, by far the best we have ever done. The artisans auction raised $1,240 and the 50-50 raffle raised $332 for the scholarship fund. In addition, we received nearly $200 in gift cards from area merchants to cover the expenses we incurred for the Fair.

The Artisans Fair Committee responsible for coordinating the event consisted of: Ida Crist, chair and publicity; Donna Spickler, vendor coordinator; Kathy Johnson, farmers market; Pat Kapola, bake sale; Dianne DeForrest, artisans auction; Ted
